CLSA Attends ASOMEXCAN Meeting

Fourteen members of the CLSA in the United States attended the annual assembly of the Asociación Mexicana de Canonistas, July 19 to 23, 2004 at the Centro Pastoral Juan Pablo II in San Juan de los Lagos, Jalisco, Mexico. The Most Reverend Raymundo Peña of Brownsville, Texas, provide the keynote address on the impact of the clergy sexual abuse cases upon dioceses, bishops, priests, and laity. The Reverend Lawrence J. O'Keefe spoke in Spanish-English addressing a marriage case involving cultural elements affecting simulation allegations, and Monsignor Mark Bartchak provided a session in English with Spanish translation on distinctions, coordination and avoidance of conflict among the external forum, the internal forum, and the forum of conscience with a focus on seminary spiritual formation. Dr. Luis de Jesus Hernandez spoke to the delegates on matters of parish administration. Monsignor Doctor J.J. Garcia Failde, Dean of the Spanish Rota provided a series of lectures on procedural law to the 163 gathered delegates.

Many of the older Mexican canonists who attended the annual meeting spoke fondly of their association with the United States and memories at Montezuma Seminary outside of the city of Las Vegas, New Mexico, in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. During a period of twentieth century troubles in Mexico, it was necessary to educate seminarians north of the border. In our informal discussions, there were many points of common interest for canonists in Mexico and the United States to pursue in the future.

At the business meeting, the members of ASOMEXCAN thanked the members of the Canon Law Society of America for their donation of Codigo, Comunidad y

Ministerio which the Society donated to their members in Mexico. There was also a request that the officers of ASOMEXCAN and the CLSA explore the possibility of a future joint meeting for the two societies. The dates for next year's meeting were set as July 11 to July 15, 2005 again at San Juan de los Lagos. For more information on the conference, contact either the CLSA's Executive Coordinator in Alexandria or contact Asomexican at tribunal@riogrande.net.mx. ▼

Grant Writing

The Board of Governors has authorized the Treasurer to explore possibilities for obtaining outside funding for CLSA projects. Searching for third-party funding sources such as foundations is a labor-intensive and specialized task. It is possible that the work of some of our committees and the topics of several planned publications are areas of interest to donors or foundations. If any member has expertise in grant-seeking and grant-writing, or contacts with donors and foundations, or if any committee or task force chair has an interest in working with a grant-writer to pursue possible funding, please contact our Treasurer. Any assistance or contacts with donors will be gratefully received! Contact our Treasurer, Rev. William J. King, at frking@hbgsdiocese.org.

Summer Travel Schedule Leaves Little Time for Reflection

Mark Bartchak

This summer seems to have gone by quickly. At least that's what the young people in my parish tell me as they prepare to return to school in just a couple of weeks! I certainly have kept busy this summer.

At the invitation of Msgr. Patrick Powers, President of the Canadian Canon Law Society, I attended a symposium in Toronto, Ontario, for bishops and canonists on clergy misconduct and related issues. A number of members of the CLSA were also in attendance. The program and presenters were quite good. It was certainly a worthwhile continuing education opportunity for me. It was also a great pleasure to renew acquaintances with members of the CCLS and to meet some of the Canadian bishops. Many of them expressed their appreciation for the CLSA Revised Guide to the Implementation of the U.S. Bishops' Essential Norms for Diocesan/Eparchial Policies Dealing with Allegations of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests or Deacons, which was included in the symposium materials.

During the week of July 19, I was in San Juan de los Lagos, Jalisco, Mexico, to participate in the annual meeting of the Asociación Mexicana de Canonistas (ASOMEXCAN). I am grateful to Msgr. Jorge Luis Roque, President of ASOMEXCAN for the gracious hospitality. As a first-time visit to Mexico, I was delighted not only by the beautiful surroundings and weather in San Juan de los Lagos, but also with a number of cultural and religious experiences. It was also a first for me to hear mariachi music in person. Also, the beauty of the cathedral church (which is also a basilica in honor of Our Lady of San Juan de los Lagos) and the piety of the local people were impressive. We also had the pleasure of being invited for dinner at the residence of the Most Rev. Javier Navarro Rodríguez, Bishop of San Juan de Los Lagos. He presented us with a copy of a book which chronicles the martyrdom of several Catholics in that region of Mexico during the 20th century.

CLSA Past President Lawrence O'Keefe and I each made presentations at the ASOMEXCAN conference. Bishop Raymond Peña of Brownsville, Texas, was the keynote speaker. There is a great interest among the ASOMEXCAN members for further interaction with the CLSA. The idea of a future joint convention (similar to what we have done with the Canadians) with bilingual presentations was discussed. I offered to bring that to the CLSA BOG for consideration. They were pleased to know that the ASOMEXCAN President will be presenting a seminar at our convention in Pittsburgh. The several CLSA members from throughout the USA who attended the ASOMEXCAN meeting expressed their hope that our two organizations can have further interaction.

I was in Philadelphia August 2-5, for the Gregorian University Canon Law Colloquium. Bishop Velasio DePaolis from the Apostolic Signatura was the first presenter. Several professors from the faculty of canon law (including CLSA members James Conn, SJ, Robert Geisinger, SJ, and Michael Hilbert, SJ) gave presentations on a variety of topics. Best wishes are extended to Michael Hilbert as he begins his new duties as dean of the faculty of canon law in September. The following week I attended the Oklahoma-Arkansas Provincial Workshop, which is the last of the regional meetings for this cycle. Ronny Jenkins from CUA was the presenter and he covered a number of topics in the areas of jurisprudence for marriage cases. I am grateful to Scott Marczuk and Royce Thomas for their hospitality.

Pittsburgh Convention Update

As of the publication of the CLSA Newsletter, we are able to announce that the CLSA pre-Convention Workshops on penal procedures and select elements of jurisprudence for those engaged in Advocacy or Adjudication in Cases of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests and Deacons will be well attended. The adjudication section is completely booked and only a few places remain in the advocacy section. The workshops, facilitated by Monsignor Ronny Jenkins of The Catholic University of America and the Reverends Daniel A. Smilanic and Patrick R. Lagges of the Archdiocese of Chicago will consist common sessions and break out sessions during the October 10-11, 2004 pre-convention.

On Monday, CLSA members and friends will join those pre-convention attendees as the sixty-sixth annual meeting, VITA SACRAMENTORUM: WORSHIP AND SANCTIFICATION gets underway at the Hilton Pittsburgh, Gateway Center. Those traveling by air may find that US Airways will offer a member discount on air travel between October 7-17th, 2004 using Gold File Number 39133034. A shuttle operates between the airport and the Hilton, and advance reservations are not required.

This year the Convention Planning Committee was able to respond to a long standing request of members. The Wednesday afternoon sessions from 2:30 to 4:00 P.M. were designated as “free time” in order for caucuses and committees to meet during the convention. Members of CLSA committees should contact their committee chair to determine whether or not their committee will meet during this time space.

Shortly before his death, Dr. Patrick S. Morris, Ph.D., of the Diocese of Raleigh, NC, contacted the Executive’s Office that he would not be able to make his presentation “Alcoholism and Marital Consent.” Preparation of the address was hampered over the past months by the aggressive advance and treatment for cancer. It was a great source of disappointment to Patrick that he would not be able to give this presentation. ▼

IN MEMORIAM

The Executive Coordinator’s office learned on July 6, 2004 of the untimely death of the Reverend Michael Lynch of the Diocese of Galloway, Scotland. Father Lynch died in a house fire at his parish of St. Peter’s Ardrossan, Diocese of Galloway, Scotland. A judge on the Scottish Regional Marriage Tribunal since 1976, Michael joined the CLSA on December 2, 1982. He was a frequent visitor at the CLSA conventions as well as an active participant in the Canon Law Society of Great Britain & Ireland. Michael served the tribunal well in marriage and canonical ministry but always was proud to list himself as a “parish priest.”

The Rev. Msgr. Anthony L. Capitani passed away on April 23, 2004. A priest of the diocese of Trenton, New Jersey, Monsignor entered the CLSA in August of 1983. Prior to his canonical ministry, he served as a U.S. Army Chaplain from 1958 to 1978 and then as Deputy Catholic Welfare Bureau of the Diocese of Trenton. In 1981 he joined the Diocesan tribunal after receiving his JCL degree from The Catholic University of America in 1981. Over the years he continued as a judge in the tribunal as late as June 11, 2003.

Reverend David J. Byrne of the Archdiocese of Chicago, Illinois, passed away June 13, 2004. A member of the CLSA since January of 2000, Father Byrne became an associate member of the society during his time in the chancery and tribunal. He earned his BA from John Carroll University in Cleveland, Ohio, (1964) and an M.A. at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana, in 1968 before earning his M. Div from St. Mary of the Lake in Chicago in 1978.

The Executive Coordinator’s Office learned in mid July from Father Vincent M. Lachendro, O.F.M. Cap. of the death of CLSA member Father Charles Ermin Bantle, O.F.M. Cap. who passed away June 27, 2003. Father Charlie (as his friends commonly called him) arrived in Okinawa in 1950 and served there until his death. At the time of his death, Father Bantle served as Pastor of Our Lady Health of the Sick in Asato, Okinawa, Japan. He served as vicar general, chancellor, judicial vicar and episcopal vicar for the U.S. Military Archdiocese.

Notification came in late July of the death of Deacon Rudolph F. Lohmann of Schaumburg, Illinois. No further information is available. Deacon Lohmann joined the society in May of 2000 as a pastoral assistant at St. Matthew Church in Schaumburg and his involvement in the Diaconate Formation Program of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

The Tribunal of the Diocese of Raleigh announced “it is with profound sorrow that I tell you that Dr. Patrick S. Morris Ph.D, JCL, Director of the Raleigh Tribunal, formerly of the Tribunal of London, Ontario, has succumbed to cancer at 5:01pm, Friday, August 6, 2004, here in Raleigh, North Carolina. Funeral arrangements are incomplete at this time. There will be a memorial service here at the Cathedral in Raleigh where Pat was a member and a memorial service in Ontario with the interment of his ashes in the family cemetery there. Patrick was an alumnus of Saint Paul University, Ottawa; an outstanding canonist especially on his research on canon 1095 among many other works; a very dear friend to us who knew him. I ask you to please keep his happy repose in your prayers as well as his beloved wife Carolyn and daughters Erin and Andrea.” ▼

- The Canon Law Society of Great Britain & Ireland Newsletter, no. 137, March 2004 contains a number of items of possible interest to CLSA members. Among these is the apostolic letter, motu proprio, Sacramentorum Sanctitatis Tutela, the norms promulgated by SST of 30 April 2001 as well as the changes to the norms of SST on 17 February 2003. The issue contains some further commentary by Monsignor Gordon Read based on some English, Irish, and Canadian materials. The issue also includes an example of a procedure offered by the Congregation for the Clergy on readmission of certain kinds of clergy to the active ministry. Finally, the issue contains an article by Reverend Gregory Ingels and a Comment by Monsignor Gordon Read on the safeguarding of rights when investigating allegations of misconduct by clergy and religious.

I have especially enjoyed the regional meetings since the pace is a little less hectic than the annual CLSA convention and the smaller number of participants allows for more personal contact.

I mentioned at the outset that it appears that the summer has gone by quickly. So too my term as President. By the time you read this newsletter I will have met with President-Elect Sharon Euart, RSM, for the transition meeting. That meeting is important for last minute preparations for the Pittsburgh convention. (I hope that everyone has sent in their registration!) It is also a good opportunity to review the ongoing business of the CLSA and to look at some of the “loose ends.” Due to term expirations and resignations because of other duties, I have a few committee appointments to make. Also, a number of persons have been identified for the task force on diocesan synods. As soon as the appointment of the chairperson is finalized, they should be hard at work.

It has been a busy summer and a busy year for me as President. It has also been an enriching and positive experience. I am grateful for the interaction with many of you throughout the year and I look forward to seeing everyone in Pittsburgh. ▼

CLSA RESOLUTIONS

Number three of the society’s by-laws calls for possible resolutions to be sent to the chair of the resolutions committee at least six weeks before the opening of the convention so that the proposed resolutions may be sent to the members of the society for their consideration. You may review the criteria for the resolutions on pages 235-236 of the CLSA Membership Directory. If you wish to make a resolution, please e-mail Rev. Kelly M. Vandehey at kvandehey@archdpx.org.

Update on Relocation of the Executive's Office

During the first ninety days at our new location, the executive's office began to work out the wrinkles arising from relocation. The credit card terminal which served us so well over the past ten years became obsolete which necessitated a new system. We finally decided to go with a computer based system which allows us to process dues, pre-publication book orders, convention fees and so forth. The new system has safeguards protecting credit card numbers and sensitive information. Despite Mrs. Miller, our administrative assistant, being out of the office for six weeks due to an accident at home, we were able to ship out the pre-publication sales copies of Marriage Studies V and the 2004-2005 membership dues notices. We are quickly making friends with the personnel at the new post office location here in Alexandria, but we certainly caused alarm to the workers and others in line as we brought in our first mailing!

Our telephone system also required updating due to the relocation. We still attempt to answer the telephone personally as soon as it rings, but if we are unable, you can now leave a personal message on any one of the three extensions to our 703/739-2560 number. A further alteration was needed for storage, and we rented a small storage facility nearby to hold records and materials which we do not frequently access.

While we miss the easy "walk-in" ability of members that we had on the fourth floor of Caldwell Hall at The Catholic University of America, our present office location offers easy accessibility by Metro. Take either the Blue or Yellow lines to King Street Metro station. If the weather is nice, you can walk six blocks toward the East to the corner of Payne and King Streets. Turn left and we are the first building on the left. If you prefer, you can secure a bus transfer pass when you get on Metro and take the number five bus at the King Street station which stops at the corner of King and Payne. If you drive to old town Alexandria, there is meter parking and a parking garage on Cameron street a block north of Payne.

One "glitch" in our relocation remains. Please adjust your data base and that of any of your offices which may send mail to the Executive's Office. Mail which is sent to the old address ends up in the mail room of the university until it is forwarded once or twice a month. ▼

2004 ROMAN REPLIES

The 2004 edition of Roman Replies and CLSA Advisory Opinions was sent to the printer in late August with the blue lines scheduled to be returned to the executive's office after Labor Day. This year's edition contains a number of documents from the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples, and the Sacred Apostolic Penitentiary. In addition, there are a good number of advisory opinions on clergy and parish issues in this year's edition. Texts should be available by mid October 2004. For further details contact CLSA Publications at www.clsa.org or clsa@pmds.com.

Beal to Speak

We were all saddened by the news of the recent death of Patrick Morris, Ph.D. who was scheduled to present a seminar on Alcoholism and Marital Consent. Those interested in tribunal practice will be pleased to know that a replacement seminar has been arranged for the same time during the convention. John P. Beal, JCD will present, Finding Method in the Madness: Writing Sentences in LDD Cases. Based on recent Rotal decisions, this seminar will cover theoretical issues and practical suggestions for composing the Definitive Sentence in c. 1095, 2 cases.
